

MEET DOMINIC

“Each of my clients is incredibly important to me, and I take a very personal interest in their success. Making sure I provide the best solution for the client’s specific needs is paramount, of course, because clients want results, but they appreciate it even more when they know that their lawyer really cares about them.”

— Dominic S. Liberi

Dominic has a varied practice, focusing on mergers and acquisitions, finance, technology law, corporate and partnership law, securities and real estate.

Dominic loves a challenge. The more difficult and complex the problem, the more satisfaction he derives from bringing his attention and energy to bear on it. He believes that practicing law is an opportunity to both develop and utilize new and creative thought processes and, ultimately, help his clients solve problems and achieve their goals.

In his free time, Dominic enjoys playing golf, cooking for family and friends, amateur photography, historical novels and biographies, as well as following politics and world events avidly.

EXPERIENCE

Dominic counsels owners and professional management of established businesses and entrepreneurs of early stage companies and start-ups on a wide range of matters, including corporate and partnership law, mergers and acquisitions, commercial and industrial real estate transactions, venture capital investment, commercial law and finance, recapitalizations, and restructurings, including secured transactions and creditor and debtor rights, and regulatory matters in such areas as securities and antitrust law. His practice encompasses a diverse group of clients, including businesses engaged in the fields of internet technology, manufacturing, distribution, transportation and logistics, finance, and insurance as well as commercial lenders and private investors. Dominic has held general counsel and senior management and director roles in private and public companies and currently serves as U.S. counsel for several European public and private companies.

Some of Dominic's notable client engagements include:

- Closing a $100 million private equity investment in a client's business;
- Assisting a manufacturing company that was nearly out of business restructure to become one of the largest in the country in its field;
- Serving as U.S. counsel to several international publicly traded corporations in multi-national transactions totaling in excess of $ 1 billion; and
- Helping the first female-owned start-up electrical contractor in the history of the City of Philadelphia to obtain Women Business Enterprise certification from the National Women's Business Enterprise Counsel.
