

MEET MIKE

"I am a tireless advocate for my clients."
 — Michael S. Pepperman

Mike is the Chair of Obermayer’s Labor Relations and Employment Law Department and a member of Obermayer’s Management Committee. Mike is an accomplished attorney known for his tireless advocacy on behalf of his clients. He focuses his practice exclusively on the representation of management in all aspects of labor relations and employment law.

As a labor relations and employment lawyer, Mike provides advice and counsel to employers throughout the country in a wide range of businesses including manufacturers and fabricators, hospitality, retail, food services, transportation, health care and facilities management businesses among others as well as government entities and municipalities. He partners with clients to provide direction and step-by-step counsel in an effort to proactively address and manage employment and labor-related problems.

Mike’s practice includes all aspects of state and federal labor and employment law matters, which allows him to counsel management on issues such as:

- Defense of discrimination charges;
- Management training;
- Drafting and review of employment policies, procedures and agreements;
- Assisting with union elections;
- Negotiating collective bargaining agreements;

- Handling unfair labor practices, grievances and arbitrations;
- Compliance with federal and state employment laws;
- Drafting and review of employment agreements;
- Non-compete and restrictive covenants;
- Wage and hour audits; and
- Client counseling via telephone conferences, e-mail and on-site visits.

When he's not working, Mike enjoys skiing, motorcycling, and reading books on history.

EXPERIENCE

Some of Mike's more notable cases include:

- Obtaining dismissals and summary judgements on behalf of national companies involved in employment disputes;
- Obtaining favorable decisions from the NLRB on behalf of national companies;
- Obtaining a favorable decisions form a Federal Court regarding a Civil Rico matter against one of the most powerful labor unions in the USA;
- Representing national companies in numerous successful litigations before the NLRB and in collective bargaining negotiations.
