MEET PETER

"I am personally invested in the achievement of my client's goals. I aim to create long-term, lasting relationships with my clients."

— Peter J. Oberkircher

Peter concentrates his practice on real estate, general corporate, business transactions, contracts, and financing. He has extensive experience in a broad range of corporate and real estate transactions, acquisition, development, financing, and leasing of commercial projects, and mergers and acquisitions. Peter enjoys being a resource for his clients on several levels. He has developed deep and personal relationships with a number of long-standing clients. Even though he is primarily a transactional lawyer, Peter also considers himself a business advisor to his clients.
